

Radio France Internationale - Listen to the Radio

Listen to these radio programmes online to train your listening skills. Click on "écouter rfi" at the top left of the page and then select a programme (for example: "RTV Monde"). You will need a program that can play MP3 or WMA files.

France Inter - Listen to the Radio

France Inter provides interesting news broadcasts that you can listen to online. On this site you can select one of the many broadcasts from "Journal de 9h". The programmes are organised by original date of broadcast.

TV5 Monde - Street Interviews

In these video interviews, passers-by on the street explain their own associations with certain French words and expressions. Watch these videos to practise your listening skills in an authentic environment and to expand your vocabulary!

Audio Lingua - Recordings by Native Speakers

This site provides a huge selection of audio recordings by native speakers who talk about many different topics. The quality of the audio is very high. You can use the "Advanced Search" on the right side of the page to filter results by level of difficulty, length, and more.

Archive.org - Diverse Audio Recordings

Archive.org presents an alphabetically-organised list of audio recordings in very high quality. These audio files cover a broad spectrum of topics, including many stories and books.

Flenet.Unileon.es - Literary Classics Read Aloud

On this site you can find many different audio excerpts of classic works of French literature (von Camus, Stendhal, Proust ...). The accompanying text is also available for reading along. The audio files are all in very high quality.

France 24 - International TV Broadcast

The public service broadcaster, France 24, hosts a huge library of video reports that you can access. The focus is on current events and news from around the world.

Learn French by Podcast - News and Documentaries

This site provides you with a number of reports and documentaries about current events in the world. Using the simple navigation, you can set your desired language level.

France Info - Listen to the Radios

On France Info you can listen to live radio around the clock. This radio station only broadcasts news and reports, which makes it an excellent choice for improving your listening skills!

YouTube: Les comptines de la grenouille - Songs and Poems

This YouTube channel has videos of typical French songs and poems. Try to understand the content while watching to train your listening skills.

