

Flenet.UniLéon.es - Audio, Songs, Dictations

A diverse learning webpage with numerous audio recordings and audio exercises. Use these resources to learn about pronunciation and how to recreate the correct sounds of the French language.

Phonetique.Free.fr - Interactive Listening Comprehension Exercises

This interactive learning site will help you understand French pronunciation in an entertaining manner. A number of exercises will improve your ear for correct pronunciation.

Moddou - Effective Listening Practice

These varied exercises will help you improve your listening comprehension and get a good feel for French spelling. You will also get practise with intonation and word formation.

Wikipedia - Comprehensive Pronunciation Rules

Wikipedia presents an extensive explanation of the French pronunciation system (phonology). This page deals with some complex linguistic topics, but there are also many simple, clear examples of sounds in French.

Études Littéraires - Rules for Connecting Words

An overview of the rules for "Liaison" when connecting words in French. Several good examples will help you understand the correct pronunciation.

Laits.UTexas.edu - Audio Recordings

The chapter titled "phonétique" contains a number of high-quality audio recordings. This chapter deals with the sounds of the French language as well as other features of the language.

Flenet.UniLéon.es - Songs

On this learning page published by the University of Lyon, you can find many excerpts of French songs. These will help you understand and remember the pronunciation of specific sounds in French.

